

WGRI

December 2, 2017

North Kingstown Library

1. Welcome by President Janet Cooper
 - a. No new members or guests today
 - b. Janet presented to Dave Westcott the Official “Master of Ceremony” recognition. This a belated recognition from the Anniversary Dinner.. Dave left the celebration early to attend his son’s wedding.
2. Minutes- had been distributed prior to meeting. Motion made to approve minutes with corrections.
3. Old business
 - a. Linda Rhynard announced that Ginny Walsh has volunteered for the NEWS Rep role for upcoming year. We are still looking for an additional volunteer.
 - b. Update from Mary Brunell on the Anniversary Dinner. All agreed that it went exceptionally well. She will be finished sending out “Thank You” cards soon.
4. Programs
 - a. Mary Brunell shared that Norma Smayda will be our speaker in January. Her topic will be “Placemats, runners, and towels. "Have nothing in your house that you do not know to be useful, or believe to be beautiful." William Morris. Further details are available on the WGRI.org Web site.
 - b. Highlighted for the April meeting is Barbara Herbster’s Zig Zag necklace workshop. This will be after the regular program where she’ll be speaking on “Why use one color when 20 will do”. There is a $30 workshop fee for the afternoon session. IMPORTANT: SIGNUP ARE DUE NOW IF YOU WISH TO PARTICIPATE so we can let Barbara know how many will be attending. If we don’t have sufficient weavers signed up, we’ll need to cancel the workshop. The attendee must come with several yards of woven band. There will be no weaving at the workshop. Please see the website for more details.
5. New Business
 - a. Mary Brunell need help with some of work of pulling info for the Guild History
 - i. Lisa Geigen, P’lette Ferland and Linda Rhynard offered to help
 1. Mary will coordinate a time after the holidays.
 - b. No other new business
6. Meeting adjourned by Janet Cooper at 10:30

Show and Tell and fiber swap immediately after meeting along with our annual pot luck lunch

Respectfully submitted

Linda Rhynard-